

How to Become a Research Assistant (PSY 99P/99/199P/199)

Do you have a cumulative 3.0 GPA in the last 3 quarters? *Transfers & Freshmen, in the last 2 quarters?

No-

Then you may find a lab to volunteer with, but you may not earn units. *Volunteers still must do the trainings.

Yes-

If you find a lab to work in, you can earn 1-4 units per quarter (up to 30 units).

Find a Lab you would like to RA for & contact them regarding a possible position.

Note: Students must secure their own position by application to the lab. Visit lab webpages for instructions on how to apply to their lab specifically. Contacting Lab Managers, Faculty or Grad Students directly is acceptable, but typically less effective than submitting an applying to the lab. *Some applications come through the list serve (click HERE to join).
