The Scientific Body of Knowledge Whose Body Does it Serve? A Spotlight on Women's Brain Health

OCT
26

Emily Goard Jacobs

Associate Professor of Psychological & Brain Sciences UCSB.

Free and open to the public. To register, please visit www.library.ucsb.edu/events-exhibitions/scientific-body-knowledge-whose-body-does-it-serve

Jacobs will consider the intersection between gender equity in STEM and the status of women's health—not as concurrent phenomena, but connected ones. She will examine critical ways in which progress in women's health has stalled from the lack of female representation in biomedicine, including neuroscience.

4:00 PM Tuesday, October 26

UCSB Library, Pacific View Room
8th Floor, Ocean Side

Co-sponsored by the Feminist Futures Initiative at UCSB.
